Dear Dr. Joekalda,

we are pleased to confirm that the anthology “A Socialist Realist History? Writing Art History in the Post-War Decades”, edited by you, Prof. Dr. Krista Kodres and Prof. Dr. Michaela Marek, containing the articles cited below, will be published in our series “Das östliche Europa: Kunst und Kunstgeschichte” on conditions agreed upon in the contract.

With best wishes

J. Kirsti Doepner
Boehlau Verlag GmbH & Cie.
Programmplanung
List of content

Krista Kodres, Kristina Jõekalda
Introduction to Socialist Art History: On Formulating the Soviet Canon

Branko Mitrović
Idealism-Holism Dilemma and the Marxist Ideological Framework

Milena Bartlová
New Political Reorientation of Czech Art History around 1950

Ivan Gerát
Marxism and Iconology in Czechoslovakia during the Cold War – Preliminary Remarks

Piotr Juszkiewicz
Socialist Modernism, Socialist Structuralism: Mieczysław Porębski’s Socialist Art History

Nataliya Zlydneva
Rereading the 1920s: Alternative Paths of Soviet Art History

Marina Dmitrieva
The Riddle of Modernism in the Art Historical Discourse of the Thaw

Katja Bernhardt

Karolina Łabowicz-Dymanus
Normative Practice and ‘Tradition Management’ in the Polish Art and History of Art of the 1950s

Kädi Talvoja
(Re)Nationalizing Estonian Art During the Thaw: Lively Legacy of Kristjan Raud

Carmen Popescu
Writing in the Void: The Historiography of Modern Architecture in Socialist Romania

Juliana Maxim
A Socialist Realist History? Grigore Ionescu’s Histories of Architecture

Virve Sarapik
CIHA Congresses and Soviet Internationalism

Authors